

CLASSIC LECCE

PRIVATE WALKING TOUR | 4 HOURS | BAROQUE BEAUTY IN THE HEART OF PUGLIA

Golden stone, lyrical lines, and southern soul.

Welcome to Lecce, often called the “Florence of the South”, where Baroque facades bloom from honey-colored stone and history echoes through quiet piazzas. This private guided tour invites you to discover Lecce’s art, spirituality, and artisanal tradition—wrapped in warmth, elegance, and local pride.

A City of Light and Limestone

With your expert local guide, explore Lecce’s historic center, a masterpiece carved from pietra leccese, the soft local limestone that artisans have sculpted for centuries. Discover:

- Baroque churches, like the Basilica di Santa Croce, with facades that seem to breathe
- Grand palazzi, cloisters, and piazzas filled with architectural poetry
- The Roman Amphitheatre, a reminder of Lecce’s ancient origins as Lupiae
- Hidden courtyards and decorative doorways, where Lecce’s flair for detail reveals itself at every step

This isn’t just a city, it’s a living canvas of Barocco Leccese.

A Touch of Craft

Along the way, enjoy the opportunity to browse artisan workshops, including:

- Papier-mâché studios, where sacred figures are still made by hand
- Boutiques offering local ceramics, olive oils, and traditional treats
- Contemporary concept stores set within Baroque walls

Each stop adds texture to your experience—authentic, tangible, unforgettable.
