

ORVIETO WALKING TOUR

PRIVATE EXPERIENCE | 3 HOURS | GOTHIC GRANDEUR & ETRUSCAN ECHOES

A medieval jewel carved in stone, suspended between sky and memory. Discover the mystical charm of Orvieto, one of Italy's most dramatic hill towns, perched atop a volcanic tufa cliff. This private walking tour unveils the city's layers, from Etruscan foundations to Gothic splendor, accompanied by an expert local guide.

From Fortress to Cathedral

Begin in Piazza Cahen, on the southeastern rim of the city. Explore:

- The remains of the medieval fortress (14th century)
- The ruins of the Etruscan Temple of Belvedere
- The famed St. Patrick's Well, a 16th-century architectural marvel once used as a Papal refuge during sieges

Continue along the Corso Cavour, Orvieto's main artery, lined with palazzi and artisan shops.

Along the way, discover:

- The elegant Teatro Mancinelli (19th century)
- The Torre del Moro, a medieval tower offering panoramic views
- The stately Piazza del Popolo, with the Palazzo del Capitano del Popolo

The Duomo: Orvieto's Crown

Follow the Via del Duomo to reach one of Italy's most magnificent Gothic cathedrals: the Duomo di Orvieto.

Your guide will lead you through its intricate façade and golden mosaics, before entering to admire:

- The legendary Eucharistic Miracle of Bolsena
- The Frescoes by Luca Signorelli: a vivid and powerful cycle on the End of the World and Final Judgment, which inspired Michelangelo
- The Chapel of San Brizio and its celestial beauty
